

Audra Fogle, was born and raised at the First United Methodist Church in Henryetta, Oklahoma. She says, "Yes- I went to high school with Troy Aikman (he was the fastest typist in my typing class and inducted me into the honor society!). She went to church with Jim Shoulders, a world renown bull rider, who always sat in the pew in front of our family. Jim's wife, Sharon, still sends me sweet notes when she sees me on television."

The Fogle's live in Bartlesville on a 16 acre 'hobby farm' with a goat named Charlie and a chicken named Raindrop.

She has been married for 25 years to Mike Fogle and they have two children:

- ❖ Taylor, 21, A senior at United Methodist Southwestern in Kansas
- ❖ Adam, 18, A senior at Bartlesville High School

She attended Oklahoma City University as a Bishop's Scholar and earned a degree in Christian Education. While attending school she also played on the school's tennis team. In 2011 she was awarded as a Distinguished Alumni from the School of Religion.

Audra, served in Youth Ministry in Oklahoma and Texas for 27 years, 10 of them at Boston Avenue, UMC.

She has served in several local, district and conference leadership positions over the years.

Currently Audra is serving on the Conference Board for Oklahoma Camps as the Program chair and has the responsibility to redefine District Camps as we realign the Districts in our Annual Conference.

Audra's Personal Mission Statement: "While I will always have fire in my heart for our youth, upon request from David, I transitioned to Welcoming Ministries as of September 1, 2014. I continue to use my gifts for ministry but now in a wider circle. Whether you are 16 or 60, we all want to know that we are an important part of God's family and that God can use us in his world."
